

First Presbyterian Church of Athens

In response to God's grace, the mission of First Presbyterian Church is to create a community where people seek the truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, rejoice in worship, and go forth sharing the love of Christ with Athens and the world!

July 28, 2019

10:00 a.m.

Senior Adult Sunday

Song of Gathering

AZMON

This is the day the Lord hath made; the hours are all God's own.

Let heaven rejoice; let earth be glad, and praise surround the throne.

Call to Worship

Come, O God, and fill this space.

Come, Holy Spirit, and fill our hearts.

Come, Lord Jesus, and lead the way.

Teach us to worship the living God.

*Hymn 481

Praise the Lord, God's Glories Show

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Holy God, hear our prayers. Your love is constant and your grace is abundant. Forgive us of the help we have not given, the hospitality we have not offered, the prayers we have not spoken, and the faithful steps we have not taken. Forgive us, God, and through your forgiveness, embolden us to be your servants in your reign of peace.

Originally cast as two eight-line stanzas, Hymn 481, a 19th-century paraphrase of Psalm 150, was slightly shortened when it was set to the present tune with recurring Alleluias. The Welsh tune is actually older than the text and bears a name meaning "the church of St. Mary."

*Silent Prayer

Lord, have mercy. Amen.

\ Those who are able may stand.*

Worshippers may greet each other by saying, "The peace of Christ be with you," and responding, "And also with you."

Children's Church will not meet over the summer. Children are invited to remain in worship.

The anthem is Psalm 119:33, set to music by English composer Thomas Attwood. Among other posts, Attwood served as organist at St. Paul's Cathedral, and he was a friend of Felix Mendelssohn.

Hymn 419, a reflection on Christian vocation, was written to provide new text for a pre-existing tune. The poet has crafted his words so well that the two parts mesh smoothly. The tune is named for a noted British boarding school, whose music director was a friend of the composer.

A catechism is a set of questions and answers regarding essential matters of Christian life and faith. The origin of the word "catechism" is from the Greek for "oral teaching." Although not formally included in The Book of Confessions, The Study Catechism of the Presbyterian Church (USA) was approved by the 210th General Assembly (1998).

*Assurance of Pardon

*Congregational Response

Hymn 579

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

*The Peace

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another. The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you.

*Hymn 419

REPTON

*Affirmation of Faith

Excerpts from The Study Catechism of the PC(USA)

What are the Ten Commandments?

The Ten Commandments give a summary of God's law for our lives. They teach us how to live rightly with God and one another.

Why should you obey this law?

Not to win God's love, for God already loves me. Not to earn my salvation, for Christ has earned it for me. Not to avoid being punished, for then I would obey out of fear. With gladness in my heart I should obey God's law out of gratitude, for God has blessed me by it and given it for my well-being.

What is the fifth commandment?

"Honor your father and your mother."

What do you learn from this commandment?

Though I owe reverence to God alone, I owe genuine respect to my parents, both my mother and father. God wills me to listen to them, be thankful for the benefits I receive from them, and be considerate of their needs, especially in old age.

Are there limits to your obligation to obey them?

Yes. No mere human being is God. Blind obedience is not required, for everything should be tested by loyalty and obedience to God. When it seems as though I should not obey, I should always be alert to possible self-deception on my part, and should pray that we may all walk in the truth of God's will.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

We give thanks for the gifts of older adults and honor those here today and those who have gone on.

We thank you for their knowledge and wisdom learned through experience,

for their love and mercy deepened by years of practice,
for their patience and perspective,
their guidance and grace.

We give thanks for their extraordinary journeys through joy and sorrow, rough going and smooth.

We are grateful for their example of faithfulness.

We are grateful for their commitment and service.

We ask your blessing on the older adults of our congregation.

Grant them strength of body, mind, and spirit.

Assure them of your abiding presence.

We pray also for all caregivers of the elderly,
that they may find daily renewal for their calling
and act with gentleness and compassion.

Enable us all continually to grow in love of you and service to one another throughout our span of years.

In times of diminishment and loss, comfort us.

Fill young and old alike with your Holy Spirit, that, as a community of faith, we may all share in the accomplishment of your work in the world and together reflect the fullness of your image
from generation to generation,

through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray,

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Grand Connections

Church family is especially important when biological family may live far away or even be deceased. Session's Congregational Care Commission would like to help facilitate cross-generational relationships within our congregation. We're calling it "Grand Connections." If you would like to be paired with a person(s) of another generation for the purpose of occasionally sharing a meal, praying for one another, attending worship together, etc., please fill this out, tear it off, and place in the offering plate.
